Simplest Mistake

Seether

Watch it blow my mind, it's something
I am ill prepared to remedy
But let it slow the time, it takes to die
And close your eyes to your enemy, defy

Self-made millionaires won't take ideas From all the little plebeians Just suffocate with smiles and force fed lies And close your mind to reality, deny

It feels like I'm losing again when I've lost Everything, I'm sure I will see more clearly Lose what I'm feeling to them and not feeling Anything, I'm sure I will bleed sincerely tonight

Watch it blow my mind, it's something
I am ill prepared to remedy
But let it slow the time, it takes to die
And close your eyes to your enemy, defy

It feels like I'm losing again when I've lost Everything, I'm sure I will see more clearly Lose what I'm feeling to them and not feeling Anything, I'm sure I will bleed sincerely tonight

So, you make the simplest mistake So, you make the simplest mistake And fearlessly you deny your involvement In my demise but give me your open hand

It feels like I'm losing again when I've lost Everything, I'm sure I will see more clearly Lose what I'm feeling to them and not feeling Anything, I'm sure I will bleed sincerely tonight

Feels like I'm losing again when I've lost Everything, I'm sure I will see more clearly Lose what I'm feeling to them and not feeling Anything, I'm sure I will bleed sincerely tonight
