60 years can seem a long time ('Till I see you)
Hope by then my tears will have dried (Boy, when I see you)
'Till then you're in the forefront of my mind
Easy for me to find
Will we be old or will we be young (When I see you)
Have you been watching the things I've done
(Boy, when I see you)
'Till then I'll see you only in my dreams
As painful as that seems

Can you forgive for the choice I made
And understand why I couldn't stay
There was no way to show me I was blind
Now I see you all the time
Take the signs I gave you as a gift
So you won't lose another friend to this
I see you in the forefront of my mind
Easy for me to find
