

Dirt

Sega Bodega

Do you know who we are
Who we are is irrelevant
We are the thing that devours you
We fade away and
Yet still we stay

I won't go easy so easy
I won't go

Look at us
Thank God it's eternal
Hope for answers written in dirt
Slowly hoping we won't return
Close your eyes I swear this won't hurt

Do you know who we are
We fade away and
Yet still we stay

So easy
I won't go easy
I won't go easy
My water bottle is bird transition
My water bottle is bird transition
