

Sit you on the kepko, lie below, and let me ask about your day
How did it go and did you think about me?
Thinking am I sad? No sad, no, happy
Press up on me, then kiss on my eyelids
Fill me up with everything that I could ever need
Keep that turn of glove
Bless us with the absences of violence
Tuck you in with one to many kisses on the cheek
I would rather give you my eyes so you can see what I see
You can only fake it only so much, and I feel it, and I feel it, and I feel it
Can you feel it? Do you feel it with me? Feel it
Thinking am I sad? No sad, no, happy
Press up on me, then kiss on my eyelids
Fill me up with everything that I could ever need
Keep that turn of glove
Press up on the stem, release the violets
Huff you up till you are just a colour I can't see
Check you when I'm fading down, we can then sort it out

When you pick a bag, who's a bad girl?
When you back, when you pick up, more
Who's a bad girl? Pick up
When you pick a bag, who's a bad girl?
When you back, when you pick up, more
Who's a bad girl? Pick up

Press up on the stem, release the violets
Huff you up till you are just a colour I can't see
