

Raising Hell

Sega Bodega

No one's around and I'm horny with my phone
Leaving all you on uhm
Working all day and I'm finally alone
Who can see me, who knows?

God, I'm feeling on my own
Camera's looking kinda cute now
Could I give a dog a bone?
I could let you know, I could let you know
God, I'm feeling on my own
Flicking through but none for you, now
Just a heads up though cause I don't fucking know you
You don't fucking know me, look so

Even if Heaven fell, I would never love you
I would never fuck you through my phone
Don't go raising Hell, I don't fucking know you
You don't fucking know me, look so
Even if Heaven fell, I would never love you
I would never fuck you through my phone
Don't go raising Hell, I don't fucking know you
You don't fucking know me, look so

I don't wanna play
Tell me all the things I need to hear you say
I don't wanna play
Tell me all the things, tell me all the things I need to hear you say

Even if Heaven fell, I would never love you
I would never fuck you through my phone
Don't go raising Hell, I don't fucking know you
You don't fucking know me, look so
Even if Heaven fell, I would never love you
I would never fuck you through my phone
Don't go raising Hell, I don't fucking know you
You don't fucking know me, know me

Strangle 'till I turn blue
I know she'll handle it alright
Angles like if only you knew, my baby
Strangle 'till I turn blue
I know she'll handle it alright
Angles like if only you knew, my baby

Listen, um... I don't know you, and you don't know me, so...

Even if Heaven fell, I would never love you
I would never fuck you through my phone
Don't go raising Hell, I don't fucking know you
You don't fucking know me, look so
Even if Heaven fell, I would never love you
I would never fuck you through my phone
Don't go raising Hell, I don't fucking know you
You don't fucking know me, look so
Even if Heaven fell, I would never love you
I would never fuck you through my phone
Don't go raising Hell, I don't fucking know you

You don't fucking know me, look so
Even if Heaven fell, I would never love you
I would never fuck you through my phone
Don't go raising Hell, I don't fucking know you
You don't fucking know me, look so
