

Tears & Sighs

Sega Bodega

What happens in the dark when all the birds stop speaking
Give into me, infinitely
And find out what it means to be
A light for the blind is equally as self seeking
Give into me, seek dignity
Remember me well

Seven days for mourning
And another six to yearn
Burn a candle for the friends
Who suffer most and never learn
Write your deepest secrets to me with your finger on my back
And just know that nothing in the earth would ever make me crack
Heaven stays on burning
But that's none of your concern
You reduced my wings to bone
'Cause they were never yours to earn
Write your deepest secrets to me with your finger in my back
And just know that nothing in the earth would ever make me crack

Some music for the deaf to illustrate my want<sup>1</sup> to<sup>2</sup>
Tell you my dreams if only I'd remember them well anyway
What's wrong with me tonight I can't tell if I'm sleeping
Give into me
Give into me
Give into me
Give into me

Seven days for mourning
And another six to yearn
Burn a candle for the friends
Who suffer most and never learn
Write your deepest secrets to me with your finger on my back
And just know that nothing in the earth would ever make me crack
Heaven stays on burning
But that's none of your concern
You reduced my wings to bone
'Cause they were never yours to earn
Write your deepest secrets to me with your finger in my back
And just know that nothing in the earth would ever make me crack

We walked alone at night one last time night before we
Said our goodbyes, these tears and sighs
Who even are you anyway
Don't talk to me, don't even look at me I want to Remember when we danced and sang
I loved you to the very end
If anything is left of us just please make sure to Destroy and burn, no sex to yearn
Don't ever mention me again
A light for the blind was equally as self seeking
Give up on me, infinitely
Remember me well
