Universal

Seigmen

(I ask myself if there is
A melancoly god up there
Dissolved in tears)

(Tonight)

(I would dry his eyes
I'd kiss his feet
To let the light shine on Mortality)

Message

I ask myself if there is
A melancoly god up there
Dissolved in tears I cross my heart
For death to bring us back to start

The boy outside is universal

And I ask myself if there is
A reward for tragedy
Please god, reverse my memory
I ask myself

Hold your horses the one who cares
Is the one outside dissolved in tears
Holds the candle while you read
Hold your horses your anxiety
The boy outside the family
Holds your hand while you sleep

The boy outside is universal
