

Blessed

Seinabo Sey

Bless the flower bless the fruit
Bless the water bless the food
Bless the people who are out there working
Bless the people who are up to nothing

Bless the riddim and the blues
Bless the roads and avenues
Bless the buyers I'm just window shopping
Bless the concrete where my feet are walking

Some days too long, some of them flash by
Some mornings hard sometimes I let it snooze
But when it hits me I won't stand by
I feel it coming, baby what about you?

Everything's alright
As soon as I woke up I was doing something right
Everything's alright
I will carry it with love I will carry it with pride

Bless the stupid bless the fools
Bless the bad times and the good
Bless the changes 'cause they got me somewhere
Bless the future we all get there someday
Bless the family and friends
Bless the moments that we spend
Bless us baby bless the way u look at me
Bless us baby let us keep on pushing

Some days too long, some of them flash by
Some mornings hard sometimes I let it snooze
But when it hits me I won't stand by
I feel it coming, baby what about you?

Everything's alright
As soon as I woke up I was doing something right
Everything's alright
I will carry it with love I will carry it with pride
