

Truth

Seinabo Sey

This shit ain't a lie, you love or you die
This shit ain't a lie, you love or you die
This shit ain't a lie, you love or you... no
This shit ain't a lie, this here ain't no lie
I love or I die

I spend most my days alone here, staring at my phone
Remembering you
Now I lay with all my shame, trying to dance away the pain
'Cause I've drowned the truth
I try to pray away the rain here
Cursing at the waves, I'm bound to lose
If I don't find the girl again, I try but I can't mend
I had to choose

These chains make a beautiful sound
But look here what I've found
I'm underwater, I'm underwater

I'm the things I never said and the memories that bled
I fight with you
Now I'm who I wanna be, not who I really am to tell the truth

These chains make a beautiful sound
But look here what I've found
I'm underwater, I'm underwater

As I lift my head today, the wind takes me away and I felt like you
Resting deep inside my chest, I just put you to rest
I'm back with you
And if I just call out your name, we'll always be the same 'cau se I am you
And now I'm dancing in the rain and I can't feel the pain
I told the truth

These chains make a beautiful sound
But look here what I've found
I'm underwater, oh, I'm underwater
Our chains made a beautiful sound
But look here what I've found
I'm underwater, I'm underwater
These chains made a beautiful sound
But look here what I've found
I'm underwater, I'm underwater
