Who do you think you are?
Who do you think you are?
Who do you think that you are?
Who do you wanna be?
Who do you think you are?
Who do you think you are?
Who do you think that you are?

Dawn is disappointing
The colours will deceive you
Winnings are never happy
Nothing comes without pain
Believing in love is in vain
Nothing stays the same
Hard work all the same
I said hard work all the same

This is the space you've been given
Anything else is forbidden
Product of your past
New things never last
You are the sins of your father
You're dirty like your mother
This right here has been tested
People bled for this method

Who do you think you are? (You are)
Who do you think you are? (You are)
Who do you think that you are?
Who do you wanna be?
Who do you think you are? (You are)
Who do you think you are? (You are)
Who do you wanna be?

Aaa-aa-aaa-aah
Who do you think that you are?
Aaa-aa-aaa-aah

Here are all and nothing
Make it your best friend
This is all we have
Everything will end
No use in you askin'
Everything has been answered
All conclusions are drawn
That's just the way it is

What have you done to deserve that
You can't change a thing
The sooner that you learn that
Is better for all of us
What have you done to deserve that
You can't change a thing
The sooner that you learn that
The better for all of us

Who do you think you are? (You are)

Who do you think you are? (You are)
Who do you think that you are?
Who do you wanna be?
Who do you think you are? (You are)
Who do you think you are? (You are)
Who do you think that you are?
Who do you wanna be?

We don't care what you say anyway
Guess we're free
We don't care what you say anyway

Who do you think you are? (You are)
Who do you think you are? (You are)
Who do you think that you are?
Who do you wanna be?
Who do you think you are? (You are)
Who do you think you are? (You are)
Who do you think that you are?
Who do you wanna be?

Someone made that shit up for kicks

Someone made that shit up for kicks
Someone made that shit up for kicks
Someone made that shit up for kicks
Someone made that shit up for kicks
