

Forever

SEKAI NO OWARI

I will love you

When the spark leaves your eyes
When your heart has changed its mind
And you wake with someone new
I will need you
When you need somebody else
In a mansion, in a cell
I'd still be hooked on you

If you saw it coming would you run from, run from the avalanche?
If you saw me running would you follow
And take hold of my hand?

I will love you
Forever, forever, forever, forever for ayy
Once you're here the world was
Never the, never the, never the, never the same
No question
You the sun in my eyes
Light me up burn it bright
Forever, forever, forever, forever for ayy
I will want you

When the war falls asleep
When the sky gets off its knees
Like a law, like a truth
And I still choose you (Still choose you)
When your back's fully turned
When there's no flame left to burn
I will be here win or lose, yeah

Forever, forever, forever, forever for ayy
Once you're here the world was
Never the, never the, never the, never the same (Never the same)
No question
You the sun in my eyes
Light me up burn it bright
Forever, forever, forever, forever for ayy

When I felt seen
Whoever I've been
When the pain got in the way (When the pain got in the way)
You saved me every day
When I felt seen
Whoever I've been
When the pain got in the way (When the pain got in the way)
You saved me every day

Forever, forever, forever, forever for ayy (Oh)
I will owe you
Forever, forever, forever, forever for ayy (Ayy)
Never the, never the, never the, never the same
I will show you (Oh, I can show you)
Forever, forever, forever, forever for ayy
