

Monsoon Night

SEKAI NO OWARI

T-shirt and jeans during a storm
I sing out loud, run to the shore
Just like this, oh la la la
You can laugh at me, oh, I do not care

Thunder roars, I head back home
On the porch, soaked to the bone
Light and sounds, all around
The water dances on the floor

Monsoon nights are gonna get you so high
Falling rain will not ever let you down again
Eyes on you, it's time to fly high
Nobody will drag you back down again

Monsoon nights are gonna get you so high
Falling rain will not ever let you down again
It's your life, so you gotta fly high
Come on, say yeah!

(It was a dark and stormy monsoon night...
Just like tonight... hahahaha)

The howling wind, it shakes our home
Oh, so loud, we're all alone
"It's all about to come crashing down!"
We laugh out loud, rolling on the ground
Fish in the tank, we say hello
They talk back and they let us know

"You looked so down moments ago
Now it looks like you're ready to go"

Monsoon nights are gonna get you so high
Falling rain will not ever let you down again
Eyes on you, it's time to fly high
Nobody will drag you back down again
Monsoon nights are gonna get you so high
Falling rain will not ever let you down again

It's your life, so you gotta fly high
Come on, say yeah!
