

Firm Foundation

Selah

When the threat of darkness has come breaking in
And the force of fear blows like a violent wind
When confusion strikes and clouds of chaos hit
I know
That my heart cannot be held by circumstance
For my eyes are locked on the God who sees the end
So when this world around me cries out, "Who can stand?"
I know

That I will not be moved
For my feet are planted in You
I will not be moved
For my feet are planted in You

A firm foundation
My Solid Rock
You can't be shaken
You won't be stopped
You hold me fast
You never leave
You are the hope
To which I cling
A firm foundation
My God, You are

Even when the mountains bow to rising waves
No, the seas of doubt will never make me sway
Yes, I will rejoice within the current's rage
Singing oh

I will not be moved
For my feet are planted in You
I will not be moved
For my feet are planted in You
I will not be moved
For my feet are planted in You
I will not be moved
For my feet are planted in You

A firm foundation
My Solid Rock
You can't be shaken
You won't be stopped
You hold me fast
You never leave
You are the hope
To which I cling
A firm foundation
My God, You are

You're holding me, You're holding me steady
If it floods, I'm gonna be ready
I am sealed in You
You're holding me, You're holding me steady
In the break of every levee
I am sealed in You

You're holding me, You're holding me steady
If it floods, I'm gonna be ready
I am sealed in You
You're holding me, You're holding me steady
In the break of every levee
I am sealed in You

A firm foundation
My Solid Rock
You can't be shaken
You won't be stopped
You hold me fast
You never leave
You are the hope
To which I cling
A firm foundation
My God, You are
A firm foundation
My God, You are
A firm foundation
My God, You are
