Selah

I've decided to lay my worries down
I will not fear now
I will not fear now

Even with my sorrow, pain, and doubt
I will follow You
I will follow You

I will not be moved
I will call on you

No Higher Name
That's worthy of praise
That can free us from our chains
Author of faith
Your Kingdom reigns
Jesus, The Name above all names
You're the one that we proclaim
Higher Name

I will walk in the power of my God
You will fight for me
Oh, I know You'll fight for me

And Your right hand shatters all my enemies
You go before me
Oh, in all of Your glory

So I will not be moved
I will call on you

And we'll praise You for all of our days
