

Let's Never Leave This Bed

Self Deception

You lay there doll with your gorgeous smile
Your head down on the pillow with those brilliant eyes
Sometimes I say things I don't mean Sometimes my words are more the what they may just seem (to to to be)

When you are on top of me
You're right where you're suppose to be
I pulled your hair and I called your name
Felt your body body shaking shaking as you came

Where I am the king and you are the queen
We show this bedroom something that it's never seen

Then she said, baby let's never leave this bed
Those hungry eyes are never shy, as I get off and she gets off
I
Can't pretend, you're not the best I've ever had
When you let me go "oh" down low, you go oh-oh-oh

Daddy's girl was suppose to be Staying away from a guy like me
But now you're here we own this night
As I'm in your body and you're on top of mine

Where I am the king and you are the queen
We show this bedroom something that it's never seen

Then she said, baby let's never leave this bed
Those hungry eyes are never shy, as I get off and she gets off
I
Can't pretend, you're not the best I've ever had
When you let me go "oh" down low, you go oh-oh-oh

The more time we spend, the more we pretend Yeah the more time we spend we pretend that we're not more then just friends
Let's waste a perfect day and just sleep it away

Then she said, baby let's never leave this bed
Those hungry eyes are never shy, as I get off and she gets off
I
Can't pretend, you're not the best I've ever had
When you let me go "oh" down low, you go oh-oh-oh
