

Loneliness

Self Deception

Don't fear death, and she don't fear me
Dance with the devil, then you might as well lead

Cover my heart like it's made outta glass
And I make sure it's my own to smash
I drag around my fucking past
In a worn-out bag, hiding under a mask

Burn my world down, burn it down and down again
Cause my weakness is getting the upper hand
Burn my world down cause it's time, it's time again
Hi there old friend

Loneliness, my biggest fan
Great to see you're here again
Every time I'm doing fine
I just fuck up at life
Loneliness, my dearest friend
You know me like no-one can
Every time I'm doing fine
I just fuck up at life
(Like what the fuck?!)

I'm a prisoner of a fucking disease
As my empathy and my fears compete
The warlike man is at war you see
With just himself, in times of peace

Burn my world down, burn it down and down again
Cause my weakness getting the upper hand
Burn my world down cause it's time, it's time again
