

Ocean Floor

Self Deception

It's like your smile could change the world, lay for a while here with me girl
We're here for now just you and me, there's no where else I'd rather be
Baby let's make time slow down, let's stay here till the sun comes out
The taste of you and me my dear, will never leave my lips, I swear it
Feels like I'm ten feet of the ground, cause when I was about to drown (drown)

You found me on the ocean floor, you're all that I've been searching for
I was just a mess, holding my breath
You found me on the ocean floor, not suffocating anymore
Pulled from the deep, you're all I see (all I see)

Your moonlike eyes are fixed on mine, so drunk on you you are so fine
When I'm with you I'm light as air, never felt like this I swear it
Feels like I'm ten feet of the ground, cause when I was about to drown (drown)

You found me on the ocean floor, you're all that I've been searching for
I was just a mess, holding my breath
You found me on the ocean floor, not suffocating anymore
Pulled from the deep, you're all I see (all I see)

Feels like I'm ten feet of the ground, cause when I was about to drown (drown)

You found me on the ocean floor, you're all that I've been searching for
I was just a mess, holding my breath
You found me on the ocean floor, not suffocating anymore
Pulled from the deep, you're all I see (you're all I see)
I don't have much to my name, still you love me all the same
I know with you I'll be ok
You found me on the ocean floor, not suffocating anymore
Pulled from the deep, you're all I see (all I see)

We're here for now just you and me, there's no where else I'd rather be
