

Relationship Redrum

Self Deception

Another day has gone since you called and dumped me
It's hard to eat, I can hardly sleep
I feeling that you're pressing the back of my stomach
The things you did to me
Still I love you though I know it's got me
Chained down, chained down
Chained down, chained down

You broke my life and ripped my heart out (ripped my heart out)
I'm so empty on my own (so empty on my own)
God I hate this life's not fair
I'd trade my eyes to change it back

Another day had gone since you called and dumped me
You dumped me
I buried myself alive on the inside
The things you did to me
Still I love you though I know it isn't fair
Isn't fair, isn't fair
It isn't fair

You broke my life and ripped my heart out (ripped my heart out)
I'm so empty on my own (so empty on my own)
God I hate this life's not fair
I'd trade my eyes to change it back

Take me back, cause I need it right now
Take my hand; drag me out of the crowd
Take me back, cause I need it right now
To be with you somehow
Take my hand; drag me out of the crowd
Take me back, cause I need it right now
To be with you somehow
Take my hand; drag me out of the crowd
