

The Fall

Self Deception

It was when I use to look at you
Like nothing else was beautiful
Like no one else was in the room
A voice that made me do crazy things
I'd even dance, I'd even sing

I could lose myself inside of you
To how you sounded and you moved
Now it's something that we never do
Why does time kill how it feels?
How did this get all so real?

Oxytocine running through
All I saw was you
Now we're bleeding out

Fight
And ignore it
Then we fall
And you don't seem to care at all
All is silent
When we fall
Then we fall

I sat there staring at the ring
My mind just started wondering
Does money steer the mood we're in?
And should we have lived our lives like kings and queens?
Seen the world and owning it?

Fight
And ignore it
Then we fall
And you don't seem to care at all
All is silent
When we fall
Then we fall

As we fall
How did this get all so real
When we fall?
And why does time kill how it feels?

When I use to look at you
Like nothing else was beautiful
Like no one else was in the room
You had me in your guillotine
Now it's all but memories

Fight
And ignore it
Then we fall
And you don't seem to care at all
All is silent
When we fall
Then we fall

As we fall
How did this get all so real
When we fall?
And why does time kill how it feels?
