

Wanting More

Self Deception

For this dream pursued
I got my strength renewed
To change it all
Once and for all, prove you wrong
I won't let this slip, for our relationship
Can't make me change and rearrange my ambitious ways
I am not gonna pass up this chance
Give it up for my high school romance
Almost there with something greater
We all need love but I'll save mine for later

Yeah we've been here before
I'll follow my dream I know that it's worth it
We all want something more
Now mine is in range so don't interrupt it

Dedicating all I am
Why won't you understand
My place is here with my career
And God knows that
I've been wrong before but now there is more
I can achieve and I believe it's within my reach
I am not gonna pass up this chance
Give it up for my high school romance
Almost there with something greater
We all need love but I'll save mine for later

Yeah we've been here before
I'll follow my dream I know that it's worth it
We all want something more
Now mine is in range so don't interrupt it
