

Cheers To Me

Self Esteem

So I'll spell it for you slowly
Are you ever really lonely?
Ask yourself what that word truly means
There's a light, comes every morning
Weather clouds are there to spoil it
Ask yourself what's really happening

When you're a sucker for a skinny mother fucker
I love 'em hard while they're texting another
And I'm fine, but babe, it's still true
The worst idea I had was you
How many trains can I cry on in a lifetime?
I swim deep, don't keep an eye on the shoreline
Worked hard, but babe, it's still true
The worst idea I had was you
The worst idea I had, the worst idea I had
The worst idea I had was you

So you lay down with your palms out
Turn your head from reasonable doubt
Lying to yourself works every time

Do you really want a lover
Or a reason not to bother
With the dreams and goals you once had for your life?

When you're a sucker for a skinny mother fucker
I love 'em hard while they're texting another
And I'm fine, but babe, it's still true
The worst idea I had was you
How many trains can I cry on in a lifetime?
I swim deep, don't keep an eye on the shoreline
Worked hard, but babe, it's still true
The worst idea I had was you
The worst idea I had
The worst idea I had ever was you
The worst idea I had was you

Now let's toast each and every fucker that made me this way
Cheers to you, but mostly cheers to me!
Yeah, let's toast each and every fucker that made me this way
Cheers to you, but mostly cheers to me!

When you're a sucker for a skinny mother fucker
I love 'em hard while they're texting another
And I'm fine, but babe, it's still true
The worst idea I had was you
