Self Esteem

I'm saying that you don't wanna quit music, it's just that you wanna be somewhere and lotta times that's what happens when you're in a band. When you're in a band everybody really doesn't want the same thing you want. And so you keep on doing the same old thing and other people like doing that but you're tryna go up further. And so you gotta, you have to make a decision and not worry about hurting somebody's feelings.
