I'm Shy

Self Esteem

Take mine
Did everything you wanted, did it all
And I'm fine leaving it friendly without ever knowing all

But I have decided
I was sure
You over all of them
You over all
I have decided
I was sure
You over all of them
You over all

And every single time I got something to say
I chew on it and spit on it, and say it anyway
I know I don't behave the way you want me to be
I'd love to change my ways but it's too late

I'm shy
I'm needy but I love it when you leave
If I'm high, I'll entertain until they've had enough of me

But I have decided
I was sure
You over all of them
You over all
I have decided
I was sure
You over all of them
You over all

And every single time I got something to say
I chew on it and spit on it, and say it anyway
I know I don't behave the way you want me to be
I'd love to change my ways but it's too late
And every single time I got something to say
I chew on it and spit on it, and say it anyway
I know I don't behave the way you want me to be
I'd love to change my ways but it's too late

You don't need so much help
Do it all by yourself
You don't need so much help
Do it all by yourself

And every single time I got something to say
I chew on it and spit on it, and say it anyway
I know I don't behave the way you want me to be
I'd love to change my ways but it's too late
And every single time I got something to say
I chew on it and spit on it, and say it anyway
I know I don't behave the way you want me to be

I was sure, you over all
I was sure, you over all
I was sure, you over all

I was sure, you over all
