

Peach You Had To Pick

Self Esteem

He's got the lines for sure
And his hands have never done a manual day
Can't give me what I need
But I'll be there when he wants to get away

'Cause I'm a better crowd and so are you
Another war of words will soothe me too

Call it so long ago
Oh, how he loves a girl in free fall
Forever the same
Spiral into me
I know the drops in corn has got you safely
Forever the same

'Cause I'm a better crowd and so are you
Another war of words will soothe me too

But I'm happier now, happier now
That's enough for me
I'm happy more, happy more
That's enough for me

He's killing time, for sure
Oh, how I love the sound of people begging for more
More of me
Big business, baby
And all this lying comes too naturally
Forever the same, you see

So the day, I sees it worse
You call my name and I'll call yours first

But I'm happier now, happier now
That's enough for me
I'm happy more, happy more
That's enough for me

Call me hard work to keep me down
But I cannot be silenced now
Now it's different, now it's true
My decisions aren't for you
I hoped for this, prayed for peace
Give up on stillness within me
I'm the peach you had to pick
Yet on I live, on I live
Yeah, I'm the peach you had to pick
Yeah, I'm the peach you had to pick
Yeah, I'm the peach you had to pick
Yeah, I'm the peach you had to pick
Yeah, I'm the peach you had to pick
Yeah, I'm the peach you had to pick
Yeah, I'm the peach you had to pick
Yeah, I'm the peach you had to pick
Yeah, I'm the peach you had to pick

I'll show them how I exist

How I exist
