

Still Reigning

Self Esteem

Head switch, she was it
I made a pact
We were wrong, you moved on
But I can't hear about that
I resist missing it
Every single bit
But I'm still here
Trying to believe

But, baby, your secrecy is tiring
While I'm here trying to believe
The idea of me and you happily
Going forward
'Cause

The love you need is gentle
The love you need is kind
I figured that out after
All this alone time
The love you need is gentle
The love you need is kind
I figured that out after
All this alone time

This is listening
The best I can do
My defense even when
Up against it, I do
Pull you up, make you shine
To the detriment of my
Daily fight
To ever do what's right

Baby, your secrecy is tiring
While I'm here trying to believe
The idea of me and you happily
Going forward
'Cause

The love you need is gentle
The love you need is kind
I figured that out after
All this alone time
The love you need is gentle
The love you need is kind
I figured that out after
All this alone time

Ooh
I feel everything, nothing at all
Everything, nothing at all
Everything, nothing at all
Ah-oooh
Everything, nothing at all

The love you need is gentle
All this alone time
The love you need is gentle

Ooh
Everything, nothing at all
Ah-ooh
I feel everything, nothing at all
