

Coming Over

Self

Her friends are all up in my hair again
Oh why did the story take a turn, was a mouthful of lies
Did we perform magic tricks, changing water into wine
What's exaggerated sticks but returns in time

If all of your treasure's sunken
And all of your sails have worn thin
When you're on the edge of nothing
That's when you're in need of someone

I can't dance all by myself tonight, I, I'm coming over
It all goes wrong until you get it right, I, I thought you knew

Yeah, she's naturally pale so she wears alot of blush
Oxygen and chlorophyll, sensitive to the smudge
And she's shorter than you think, tales are taller than the sky
You can't recognize her wings when they're wrapped up in mine
When they're wrapped up in mine

If I were to try to bore us
Would that help the truth to surface?
When you're on the edge of nothing
That's when you're in need of someone

I can't dance all by myself tonight, I, I'm coming over
It all goes wrong until you get it right, I, I thought you knew
I can't dance all by myself tonight, I, I'm coming over
It all goes wrong until you get it right, I, I'm in love with y ou

I can't dance all by myself tonight, I, I'm coming over
It all goes wrong until you get it right, I, I thought you knew
I can't dance all by myself tonight, I, I'm coming over
It all goes wrong until you get it right, I...