

FLOWERS

Semetary

I'm on the Rainbow Bridge

I woke up this morning still above the ground
Smoking on your ashes, laughin' at the world (Haugh)
Nothing ever grows over on the haunted mound (Haunted Mound)
Laughing through the flowers on the hallowed ground
I'll put you in the flowers
I'll put you in the flowers
I'll put you in the flowers, the flowers, the flowers
I'll leave you in the flowers (Ahh)

Ribcage, collar bone
Bleached white, forgotten, buried all alone
Got nine Mondays 'til we decompose
Feed you to the soil on the hill where nothing grows (Oh)
Haunted Mound where I come from
Where the leaves fall red with the set sun
Past the pines, on the river bed
Grave House in the middle of the farmstead
Reap the Earth, skin the hide, how it should be
Keep yourself occupied, keep yourself busy
Death's wagon comin', chains like I'm Jacob Marley
I'm fuckin' arcane, from the woods, I'm a grizzly
Trace the blood, four feet, call me shallow
Underground, things feeding deep in the meadow
Ivory, down below, hear the owls
I'll put you down to sleep beneath the flowers

I woke up this morning still above the ground
Smoking on your ashes, laughin' at the world
Nothing ever grows over on the haunted mound
Laughing through the flowers on the hallowed ground
I'll put you in the flowers
I'll put you in the flowers
I'll put you in the flowers, the flowers, the flowers
I'll leave you in the flowers (Ahh)
