

Deep in Dark Waters

Semblant

Ghostly eyes can unravel it all
No more secrets, no more scars
A gloomy night brings the death's embrace
Demonized by an angel's face
The resurrection of knowledge
Through the eyes of the dead
I am the witness of your suffering
A mortal life's just a game
Ashes to ashes, pain to pain
Immortality's not a game
Behind, beyond
Walking between the worlds
Try to justify
After crucify
The evil in your eyes
Makes my heart deny
The ghost of your mistakes
Keep my eyes awake
I feel my senses numb
Dark waters rain for you
Your face's clean
But so deep inside
I know you're hiding something dark
I'm the witness of your suffering
A mortal life's just a game
The resurrection of knowledge
Through the eyes of the dead
Ashes to ashes, pain to pain
Immortality's not a game
Try to justify
After crucify
The evil in your eyes
Makes my heart deny
The ghost of your mistakes
Keep my eyes awake
I feel my senses numb
Dark waters rain for you
