Enrage

Semblant

Wrath within
Your shallow lies conspire against me
Deteriorate inside
My enemy
Consider this your final warning
The end of this strife

Say my name once again
And feel the anger recreated

Never mind the reverie
Never mind the sun
Embrace it one last time
Never mind the memories
Never mind the gods
Embrace it, embrace it one last time
Never mind the sun
Enrage

Rage within
Crownless with a sense of urgency
Disintegrate inside
My reckoning
Until the day we reach the ending
The end of all life

Never mind the reverie
Never mind the sun
Embrace it one last time
Never mind the memories
Never mind the gods
Embrace it, embrace it one last time
Never mind the sun
Enrage

As the world returns to ashes
And you say my name again
As the world returns to ashes
Embrace the rage within

Say my name once again
And feel the anger recreated

Never mind the reverie
Never mind the sun
Embrace it one last time
Never mind the memories
Never mind the gods
Embrace it, embrace it one last time
Never mind the sun
Enrage
