

Heretic

Semblant

A secret lies on a distant chamber
Unchained knowledge aflame
The thunder's rumble

Nihilist brand new world:
The ivory tower
New Dogma, Antipope:
Hungry for power
Ethereal Antidote:
Delight and ecstasy
A spiral flame smoke:
The answering abyss
Abyss

Glyphs and Runes
The clash between science and arcane roots
From the dead to the living
Autumn moon
Shines through mirrors and black obsidian
Heretic essence surrounds our souls

The gift of sight and a glass that crumbles
I'm a guest in the court of the clairvoyant

The blessed and the doomed:
Damnation and divine
The Saturn's son consumed:
The name of God is Time
Forbidden forgotten path:
Unveiling life and death
All that is mentioned, clear and well:
In the secret doctrine of Heaven and Hell
Heaven and Hell

Adam and the sin
Light the torch within
There's no reason to regret
The deeper it goes the darker it gets

Glyphs and Runes
The clash between science and arcane roots
From the dead to the living
Autumn moon
Shines through mirrors and black obsidian
Heretic essence surrounds our souls

Adam and the sin
Light the torch within
There's no reason to regret
The deeper it goes the darker it gets
As above so below
As below so above
From Tartarus to the Elysian meadows
The brighter the flame, the deeper the shadows

Glyphs and Runes
The clash between science and arcane roots

From the dead to the living
Autumn moon
Shines through mirrors and black obsidian
Heretic essence surrounds our souls

As above so below
As below so above
From Tartarus to the Elysian meadows

Do what thou wilt
