

Insomnia

Semblant

I don't sleep, I don't fight
I try to forget the things that are disturbing my mind
I don't lie, I don't cry
But my eyes remain open and time is passing by

I don't pray for anyone
Don't expect anything else
The night has become my lover
My punishment and my cell

There is no hope, there is no time
There is no chance of believing that something could be fine
My bad dreams, my own lies
I live inside two worlds, slowly merging by night

I don't pray for anyone
Don't expect anything else
The night has become my lover
My punishment and my cell

Pater noster quis es in caelis
Sanctificetur nomen tuum
Adveniat regnum tuum
Fiat volúntas tua sicut in cælo

Adveniat regnum tuum
Fiat volúntas tua sicut in cælo, et inferno
