

Mere Shadow

Semblant

When the walls are closed down, separating me
From the emptiness I'm holding on

Falling apart, a living ruin
Take a deep breath and glance inside
All of my demons refuse to depart

Just know who you are
And never let go... never let go

Somewhere a shadow resists within us
Don't let it go out of reach, keep it in sight
Free yourself from disbelief or live your life in misery
Somewhere a shadow resists within us

Never ending solitude... within us
Always craving for the truth... within us

Somewhere a shadow resists within us
Don't let it go out of reach, keep it in sight
Free yourself from disbelief or live your life in misery
Somewhere a shadow resists within us
