Neverending Fall

Semblant

We live on the edge, struggle hard to the end
Disillusion – the final frontier
A compilation of Dreams is not what it seems Admire a gallery of broken memories

There's a labyrinth in the shades of the hill
A puzzle to solve, a mountain to climb
No easy way out, our time stands still
Anti-Heroes on a Journey against the wind

Between harmony and dissonance
A blinded vision predominance
Divided by flames, we're not the same

Marching on Forever to Fall
Until we lost it all we pretend to go on
At the edge, we stand tall
Marching on Forever to Fall
Until we lost it all we pretend to go on
At the edge, we stand tall

We laugh and cry, what we desire
Insanity lies in the mouth of the abyss
Irresistible fall, the breakout line of us all
With open arms in deep deliverance

Between harmony and dissonance
A blinded vision predominance
Divided by flames, we're not the same

Marching on Forever to Fall
Until we lost it all we pretend to go on
At the edge, we stand tall
Marching on Forever to Fall
Until we lost it all we pretend to go on
At the edge, we stand tall

We live on the edge, struggle hard to the end
Disillusion – the final frontier

Marching on Forever to Fall
Until we lost it all we pretend to go on
At the edge, we stand tall
Marching on Forever to Fall
Until we lost it all we pretend to go on
At the edge, we stand tall
