

The Human Eclipse

Semblant

Fading memories of what we were
The world before exists no more
Specimen colliding to evolve
The emptiness we can't control

The prey inside us learning to survive
Becoming a predator, a higher form of life
Rebuilding walls of a ruined empire
Reach out the surface to stay alive

The alignment of emotions
Constellations as the seasons of life
A torch ablaze in the cold
The sun of a Human Eclipse... will rise!

Potential slaves claiming to be forgiven, to be saved
To follow an Alpha Factor, victims of a Chain Reaction
Marching in circles on a line of foolish Beta creatures
It's time to rise, erase the past, blessed in disguise

Poison for the innocence - a key for the cure
Point of departure, cocoon's rupture
A brainwashed medicine regenerate
The eclipse within the human void

The prey inside us learning to survive
Becoming a predator, a higher form of life
Rebuilding walls of a ruined empire
This old world must remain dead

The alignment of emotions
Constellations as the seasons of life
A torch ablaze in the cold
The sun of a Human Eclipse

The alignment of emotions
Constellations as the seasons of life
A torch ablaze in the cold
The sun of a Human Eclipse
