Cluster - B

Sen Senra

Swinging in between never-ending lines
Switching them depending on the times
You wanna feel the pain inside so you feel alive

Walking on the streets like you'd never run
But in your veins blood is running fast
Avoiding the fact that inside you are going mad

Poison and charisma and a twisted mind
Tired to control the hell burning inside
Which of the sides will dominate today your eyes?

Dangerous and extasy into other minds
But then she has to take of her mask
Only wish she can spread herself like wind

All your life you've been waiting for love
Wondering If you deserve it or nah
All your life you've been waiting for love
But you lie

All my life I've been waiting for love
All I needed was someone to trust
You don't stop lying, so I really don't know
Don't know
