

Pretty Empty

Sen Senra

I know you've lost the war against someone else
And now the battle is taking place in your head
I fight my demons everyday, I'll take care, baby
I'll take care

And I don't wanna talk
Talk of what I feel for you
Be both carry heavy luggage
Where we keep our truth
Playing hard is what we do
To get us through, get us through
This game that we could lose
I just wanna see you so bad
The sheets are still warm, my bad

All I wanna do is never take my eyes off you
Even if I do, will never get enough of you

I know you've lost the war against someone else
And now the battle is taking place in your head
I fight my demons everyday, I'll take care, baby
I'll take care

And I don't wanna talk
Talk of what I feel for you
