

Prove Me Wrong

Sengir

You prove me wrong
It's a moment of redemption
In a world still turning
You prove me wrong
and I hold on to your magic words that got me flying

I'd pray the days would move so fast
without a vengeance
But all my doubts were built to last forever more

Prove me wrong, but can you turn me on?
You try it on and on

Prove me wrong
It's a matter of intrusion and my sweet surrender
You prove me wrong
And you opened my eyes, so blind find now I wonder...

You prove me wrong
But can you turn me on?
You try it on and on
