

Time

Sengir

Deep down I understand,
under Your command
there is no place to hide away and fear for You
like blinded fools
fools

So what are we searching for?
Another closing door?
We go underneath the stars to search for words divine and we are losing time
Time

Deep down I understand,
under Your command
like blinded fools

Now we will never know, never be able to hold the meaning of it all So why do we keep fighting the unknown?
'cause there is no place to hide away and fear for You
like blinded fools

Now the story has been told May all the hands unfold or will it give us strength to walk this path to life
'till the end of all time when we say goodbye
