

To End A Letter

Sense Field

To end a letter, we'll piece this together
I'm going to need something stronger for you to remember
I'm going to harvest what little I can say

To end a letter, we'll piece this together
'cuz I need a way of getting this all back
Home to you, back home to you

Nothing can stop our
Sweet dreams filled with hope
Nothing can stop us now
No one can touch our
Sweet dreams filled with hope
Nothing can stop us now
Nothing can touch us now

I have a stream of ideas for a handful of mistakes
Endless apologies, infinite music
The need to touch you deep, the need to touch you more
When I'm home with you, back home with you

Nothing can stop our
Sweet dreams filled with hope
Nothing can stop us now
No one can touch our
Sweet dreams filled with hope
Nothing can stop us now
No one can stop us now
No one can touch us now
