Resistance now

Mobilise and motivate Your body is the grain that tips the scales of hate's accumulated wei ght Your mind is a gate, brutal regimes we will not tolerate Question the given line, stay independent Little by little the flows gain momentum Picture the place, the potential awaits Free from the shackles of nation states Free from the hate, free from the herd and its mewling for blood Because what we need is: Resistance now Resistance against war and the blood that flowed upon the earth and o ccupation of all lands Security for every human and humanity within religion On se mobilise et en plus on resiste toute les aggressions et actions fascistes Contre les pouvoirs qui veut controler notre destinie, j'oublirai jam ais This is operation cyclone in your own home Strong counter action cause their methods are known Censorship by omission, polish a lie 'til it gleams and bring the rid dle to fruition H is for history's Moebius strip Turning full cycle for others to witness the shift Those who resist strong in your midst Ever equipped and we'll never forget this: Resistance Now Use your head as your defence Pushing only weakens and prevents you from acting on the thrust of th e action that you must Against the power that you thought you trusted and their sentiments a re thus It's all pointing inwards, the action is employed It's all pointing inwards, the action employed Desert storms tear at your skin This is the fear that you've been feeling And your reasons are not unreasonable This is a crisis, ask yourself who you are How small... Resistance Now

You live your life in tacit silence Feel this is not your crime, gaze down Until the noose is tightened around your neck Gun levelled at your eyes, where now?

Don't you lie down and die!

Your voice holds the key to your society Expose the ones who want to fuck it up for you and me No more of settling for what they feed The time has come to put the pressure up against the greed
