

In Your Absense

Senses Fail

Can we make a pact
If one of us dies then the other one will too
Cause I can't standing living in this world without you
Love is worth the risk
Without you my life would be worthless
I'd follow you into the abyss

When you leave this Earth
There'll be a hole in the place
Where my heart used to beat
It will be empty
How the fuck am I supposed to care
About what's happening out there?
How the hell am I supposed
To get used to all this death?

I wish I could forget
But no matter what I know how it ends
I swear I'll start drinking again
I wish I could pretend
That we'll hold each other close in heaven
But I lost my faith when I was seven

When you leave this Earth
There'll be a hole in the place
Where my heart used to beat
It will be empty
How the fuck am I supposed to care
About what's happening out there?
How the hell am I supposed
To get used to all this death?

And all the walls we build
To keep our hearts from crumbling
And I am not afraid of death
I'm afraid of being left alone again

When you leave this Earth
There'll be a hole in the place
Where my heart used to beat
It will be empty
How the fuck am I supposed to care
About what's happening out there?
How the hell am I supposed
To get used to all this death?
