

Chaostar

Septicflesh

You opened the portal of my secret favourite constellation Rest calm I will not trick you. I will treat you, like a demon in
A bottle

Relax

Chaostar

The reason I answered you is that I am looking for a reflection
My mind is your crown now; there are things I want to share with You

Relax

Chaostar

You opened your shelf, releasing an ethereal butterfly
Your empty cocoon is trembling as you are wearing the night wings

Relax

Chaostar

Ecstatic from the nebular wonder that is hidden in the garden of
The night
United we form the snake that is hanging on the tree of life

The Chaostar
