

Stand before me (Stand before me)
Before me (Before me)
Illumination you desire

Confront your fear (Confront your fear)
Your fear, the fear of lurking death
The great despair
The blows of fate are merciless
So hard, they hit existence

You made me
I'm your creation
You made me
I'm your salvation

Life, death, fear
I am the clock of time
That drains the life of mortals
They fear me
They feed me
I have a wide and hollow mouth

Fight and prevail
Embrace the path within
The triple crown
The crown of your destiny (Destiny)
The painful ecstasy
Remove your final seal
Become a new man
Shed, now, your present skin

(Confront your fear) Confront your fear
(Your fear) Your fear of lurking death
The great despair

Fight and prevail
Embrace the path within
The triple crown
The crown of your destiny
Fight and prevail

Become a new man
Bathe with the blood of the sun
Fight and prevail
Embrace the path within
The wand of fantasy
The gift of dreaming
Fight and prevail
Embrace the path within
Become a new man
Bathe with the blood of the sun
