

Trinity

Septicflesh

I am the abyss
I am the way
The secret door to a hidden cave
A different place to the garden of fools
You can enter here, if your steps will lead you to...

Thoughts are sailing fast, like ships into a storm
Dreams are fading; they are heading to a point of no return

You can call me Trinity, as three divide the whole
One third of me, is what you see
A mirror is my astral door

Trinity
Remember what you always have been
Trinity
The one that is three
Trinity
The one possessed by three
