Countries For Breakfast

Serafin

How to be thankful when there's a bank full of oil and gold and food Countries for breakfast, this is the genius of our world ending soon
Taking stages of all ages, I'll make a man out of you Necklace of aching, bone and back breaking Sores on all your clouds and a series of soundbites proving you
're allright,
mental and socially loud.
Taking stages of all ages, I'll make a man out of you Thinkings over, I'm the rearranger, I'll make a friend out of you, you're a stranger Thinking's over, I'm the rearranger, gotta try and get it all new, you're a stranger Mountains of pressure for your own leisure, making sure you're down
This will dillute me and all but dispute these things and probl ems I've found
Taking stages of all ages I'll make a man out of you....
