

Loving You

Serena Ryder

Thought I wanted love
Thought I could have her
But the rain inside
Seemed to come in faster
Than I could ever swim
But I was thirsty
And drank it dry

I wanna hold you to it
Want you to show me
Who it's
Gonna be

I wanna hold you to it
Want you to show me
Who it's
Gonna be
Her or me, baby

Cause I'm still loving you
Loving you
Loving you

There's a naked truth
Freezing the winter
Thought that it was you
Just another splinter
Baby, light my fire
Have another drink
And settle down

I wanna hold you to it
Want you to show me
Who it's
Gonna be

I wanna hold you to it
Want you to show me
Who it's
Gonna be
Her or me, baby

Cause I'm still loving you
Loving you
Loving you

I'm still loving you
Loving you
Loving you

Holding on to love
Is holding on to water
Slipping through my hands
Why do I even bother
That's how the story ends
Cause no one ever needs to know

I wanna hold you to it
Wanna you to show me
Who it's
Gonna be [giggles]

I wanna hold you to it
Wanna you to show me
Who it's
Gonna be
It is her or me, baby

I'm still loving you
Loving you
Loving you

I'm still loving you
Loving you
Loving you

I'm still loving you
Loving you
Loving you

I'm still loving you
Loving you
Loving you
