

Sanctuary

Serena Ryder

Didn't want to let you go
I fall apart when I'm alone
I don't want to need your love
But nothing else is good enough
I am breaking through
Coming back to you
You're calling me a shooting star
No wonder I fell so far
So far away

You're completely for me
The love I carry
You are all that I need
My sanctuary

I know it's not an easy life
But with you, everything's all right
And no one else can take your place
Or be big enough to fill your space
Hold me in your arms
You're the one I want
And maybe you're in my dreams
But nothing's ever what it seems
When you're wide awake

You're completely for me
The love I carry
You are all that I need
My sanctuary
