

The Flame

Serena Ryder

Broken glass, shattered dreams
I know it's not a perfect world, there is no
Guarantee
Won't fall apart, I'll make believe
A magic world to change my mind, what
You could say to me

I don't need you, hanging 'round and
'Round, no, I
I don't want you, wasting all, wasting all my
Time

Your love's been dragging me through the
Flame
I-I-I' not waiting
I'm tired of battling you to say
I-I-I' not waiting
Believe you could change
Bet you could change your ways
Your love's been dragging me through the
Flame

Got old scars, spinning wheels
I've been walking on the razor's edge, I love
The way it feels
I gotta hope that I gotta heal
And I've been holding on too long, the rage
I can't conceal

I don't need you, hanging 'round and
'Round, no, I
I don't want you, wasting all, wasting all my
Time

Your love's been dragging me through the
Flame
I-I-I' not waiting
I'm tired of battling you to say
I-I-I' not waiting
Believe you could change
Bet you could change your ways
Your love's been dragging me through the
Flame

I got hope, I got faith
I got truth, I grace
I got hope, (I got open eyes) I got faith
(I can see the light)
I got truth (On the other side) I got grace
(This is paradise)

Your love's been dragging me through the
Flame
I-I-I' not waiting
I-I-I' not waiting
Believe you could change

Bet you could change your ways
Flame

The flame
Dragging me through the flame
The flame
