

Down to Hell

Serenity

Late at night
We'll meet down where mountains high
To see who has changed the sides
To prove who's still with the faith
It's tonight
We will know the truth, no lies
We will keep our fate beside
The moment to start our rage

Too long we've failed to win, to come back to the light
No mercy to the ones who has left us fallen

Down to hell, we'll show the way
To the ones who still betray
Down in hell, the only place
You can be right
We defend, cause we can say
Who's pretender or worth to stay alive
We're not failing again

Stay unite
They're creeping beyond the light
Fear's leading their souls to fight
Before we'll unearth their lies
Time to die
Not for us, we'll stay alive
As promised to reunite
And fight back the devil's spies

Too long we've failed to win, to come back to the light
No mercy to the ones who has left us fallen

Down to hell, we'll show the way
To the ones who still betray
Down in hell, the only place
You can be right
We defend, cause we can say
Who's pretender or worth to stay alive
The moment we know we're not failing again

And we fall
Down to hell, we'll show the way
To the ones who still betray
Down in hell, the only place
You can be right
We defend, cause we can say
Who's pretender or worth to stay alive
We're not failing again
