

Nemesis

Serenity

Nemesis, nemesis
Nemesis, nemesis
Nemesis, nemesis
Nemesis, nemesis

Black angel, guardian, queen of our fate
You've come to judge our lives
Tell me if I'm guilty before it is too late
Cause there's really nothing that I'd like to hide

With every lie our soul is pending deeper in the fire
And in the night our nightmares are alive

Feel the anger of gods
The wages of sin
Kneeling alone in the dark
We'll be leaving this world
Cause vengeance has come
Hail to nemesis

Black angel, guardian, queen of the rage
You're here to end our pain
We need your salvation before we forsake
Cause this is our last chance before all is in vain

Feel the anger of gods
The wages of sin
Kneeling alone in the dark
We'll be leaving this world
Cause vengeance has come
Hail to nemesis

All is lost if we don't see what is wrong or right
If we stay blind we won't see the dark will end in light
Nemesis has come to reign over our lives and fate
Nemesis the god of rage, the emperor of hate

Feel the anger of gods
The wages of sin
Kneeling alone in the dark

Feel the anger of gods
The wages of sin
Kneeling alone in the dark
We'll be leaving this world
Cause vengeance has come
Hail to nemesis, nemesis

Nemesis, nemesis
Nemesis, nemesis
Nemesis, nemesis
Nemesis, nemesis
